Client: means the same person as the sender.

Data subject: an identified or identifiable natural person who visits or registers on the website.

User: the person who provides the personal data on the GLS website or in GLS systems.

Third party: a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorised to process personal data.

Personal data: any information relating to the data subject; an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

3. MAIN LEGAL REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO DATA PROCESSING AND THEIR ABBREVIATIONS

- REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) (hereinafter: GDPR or Regulation)
- Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code (hereinafter: Hungarian Civil Code)
- Act CLV of 1997 on Consumer Protection (hereinafter: Consumer Protection Act)
- Act CLIX of 2012 on Postal Services (hereinafter: Postal Act)
- Act CXII of 2011 on Informational SelfDetermination and Freedom of Information (hereinafter: Information Act)
- Act C of 2000 on Accounting (hereinafter: Accounting Act)
- Government Decree 335/2012 (XII.4.) on the provision of postal services and on the detailed rules of postal services relating to official documents, and on the general contractual terms of postal services and on consignments that are excluded from the postal service or that may only be carried subject to conditions (hereinafter: Government Decree)

4. PRINCIPLES OF DATA PROCESSING AND ENFORCEMENT THEREOF

4.1. LAWFULNESS, FAIRNESS, TRANSPARENCY

Controller performs the data processing operations indicated in this Notice in a lawful and fair manner, in a manner which is transparent for the Data Subject.

4.2. PURPOSE LIMITATION

The Controller only uses the personal data for the purposes stated in this Notice and only transfers it in order to achieve such purposes, in accordance with the provisions of this Notice and legal regulations in force, applicable to the processing of personal data. The processed personal data can only be accessed by the persons concerned in the achievement of the purposes.

It is the User's responsibility and obligation to obtain the data subject's consent in advance whenever he or she indicates personal data which is not his or hers. Responsibility for the truthfulness of data falls on the User.

4.3. DATA MINIMANISATION

The Controller only asks the Data Subject to provide personal data which, considering the purpose of the data processing, is appropriate, relevant and absolutely necessary in respect of the specific data processing, without which it would not be able to provide its service or would not be able to provide it according to its commitments.

4.4. ACCURACY

The Data Subjects are responsible for the truthfulness, accuracy and up-to-date nature of data entered on the website. Moreover, it is also the Data Subject's responsibility and obligation to obtain the data subject's consent in advance whenever he or she indicates personal data which is not his or hers.

If the Data Subject notifies the Controller, in accordance with this Notice, that his or her data does not correspond to reality, the Controller shall arrange for the erasure or rectification of this data, in accordance with this Policy.

4.5. STORAGE LIMITATION

The Controller ensures that personal data is stored in such form as only allows the identification of the Data Subject for the time required to achieve the purposes of personal data processing. Thus, the Controller defines the duration of data storage in accordance with this principle.

4.6. INTEGRITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY (DATA SECURITY)

GLS is committed to the protection of its customers', partners and employees' personal data and attaches special importance to respecting its customers' right to informational self-determination. GLS processes personal data confidentially and takes every security, informational security, technical and organisational measure to guarantee the security of data.

Every employee of GLS has undertaken in writing to maintain the confidentiality of data. GLS Hungary, as well as the person (organisation) performing the postal agency activity, is obliged – provided that the statutory conditions are met and there is a request to this effect – to hand over or present any postal consignment, textual message or communication to the organisations authorised by a separate statutory instrument to examine the contents thereof, and shall also make possible the monitoring and storing of these, as well as any other kind of intervention in respect of the consignment or textual message. The Controller takes every measure required to ensure that the data is processed in a secure and intact manner, as well as to build and operate the data processing systems required for this, and to protect personal data from abuse and data loss. The Controller ensures that no unauthorised person can access, disclose, transfer or alter or erase the data processed. The Controller stores the data that contains personal data on a secure server, which is not publicly accessible. GLS Hungary only uses data made available by the customers (recipient data) to carry out the services ordered. The Controller also requires its employees participating in the data processing activity and any data processors it may use to undertake the above commitment.

4.7. DATA TRANSFER AND PARTICIPANTS

The personal data shall be provided, processed or transferred to a third party in compliance with the undermentioned regulations.

GLS does not sell or lease any personal data to third parties. However, there are certain circumstances when GLS may share personal data without further notice.

- With GLS subsidiaries for the purpose of parcel dispatch from sender to recipient.
- With subcontractors employed lawfully by the Service Provider or with postal contributors (processors) for fulfilling the contract between the Sender and the Service Provider.
- With processors employed lawfully by the Controller. The list of the processors can be found in Annex 3. GLS cooperates with its partners under a data protection agreement and subject to strict control. Furthermore, GLS only provides information to third parties based on authorisation under the law (e.g. inquiries of authorities based on law).
- With other data controllers for the purpose of completion of postal service, who are solely liable for their activities. Detailed rules are set forth in Annex 1 and 3.

Furthermore, GLS only provides information to third parties based on authorisation under the law (e.g. inquiries of authorities based on law).

5. THE LEGAL BASIS OF DATA PROCESSING

The Controller is entitled to perform its data processing activity based on the following legal bases.

In its logistical activity relating to postal services, i.e. collecting, processing, transporting, and delivering parcels, GLS Hungary shall process data on the following bases:

- consent of the data subjects, which is expressed in the fact that they provide their personal data to GLS or transmit it to the sender so that it should be processed for one or more specific purposes (hereinafter referred to as 'Consent') this is based on Point (1) a) Article 6 of GDPR;
- processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract (hereinafter referred to as 'Performance of a Contract'); this is based on Point (1) b) Article 6 of GDPR;
- processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject (hereinafter referred to as 'Compliance with legal obligation'); this is based on Point (1) c) Article 6 of GDPR;
- processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, (hereinafter referred to as 'Legitimate interest of the Controller'); this is based on Point (1) f) Article 6 of GDPR.

The legal basis of a specific data processing activity is contained in the information indicated for that specific data processing activity.

6. DATA PROCESSING ACTIVITIES POSTAL SERVICE-RELATED DATA PROCESSING

This Privacy Policy covers the activities that are part of the GLS GBC.

As the basis and precondition for the data processing activities that are part of the GLS GBC is the contract concluded between the Sender and the Service Provider, the processing activities may differ depending on whether the activity is based on a long-term agreement, a one-off parcel delivery contract concluded in the GLS ParcelShop or a service ordered via the <https://ecsomag.hu> website. Some of the data processing practices may apply to all types of contracts, while others may be linked to a specific type of contract only. The detailed rules for this are set out in Annex 1.

6.1. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE SENDER AND THE SERVICE PROVIDER

The Service Provider qualifies as a data controller in respect of the fulfilment or provision of the postal service.

The postal service contract is concluded between the Service Provider and the Sender. In the case of a contractual relationship between the Recipient and the Sender (including, but not limited to, web store orders, distance sales agreements), the Sender also qualifies as a data controller. This data processing is governed by the contract between the Sender and the Recipient.

The data necessary for the delivery of postal consignments (parcel delivery) are provided by the Sender to the Service Provider within the framework of the postal service contract. The Sender is responsible for the legality of the transmission of such data and for the accuracy and correctness of the data transmitted. The Sender is obliged to cooperate with the Service Provider in connection with the data processing, in particular in connection with the correction, restriction and deletion of the data transmitted by the Sender or the management of any data protection incidents. If the Data Subject directly contacts the Service Provider for correction, deletion or restriction of any data, but the incorrect / inaccurate data was not generated in the Service Provider's systems or scope of activity but is clearly attributable to incorrect / inaccurate data forwarded to the Service Provider by the Sender, the Sender shall be obliged to take all necessary measures to correct, delete or restrict the data. Failure to do so or breaching this obligation shall be the responsibility of the Sender.

The Service Provider shall be solely responsible for the data processing performed in the framework of the postal service.

6.2. POSTAL CONTRIBUTORS

The Service Provider is entitled to use contributors to provide the service and to transfer personal data to them in order to provide the service. These contributors shall be considered data processors unless otherwise stated in this Privacy Policy. The list of data processors, the legal basis for the data transmission and the scope of the transmitted data are contained in Annex 3. The Service Provider is responsible for the data processors as if it had acted itself.

For the purposes of the data processing activities carried out by GLS ParcelShops, GLS shall be considered as data controller and the ParcelShop Operator as data processor. Detailed list of GLS ParcelShops can be found at <https://csomaq.hu/hu/csomaqfeladas> website.

The data processor shall only be liable for any damage caused by the data processing if it has failed to comply with the obligations specifically imposed on data processors under the GDPR, or if the Service Provider's lawful instructions have been disregarded or acted against.

7. RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

This section details the rights of Data Subjects and their possibilities of enforcing them. The Data Controller draws the attention of the Data Subjects to the fact that for the purposes of this Section they may only exercise the rights provided by the applicable legal provisions. That is, where the exercise of that right is subject to a specific legal basis or condition, the Data Subject may only exercise that right if the Data Controller manages that particular personal data on that particular legal basis or the request is in compliance with the conditions set out therein.

7.1. RIGHT OF ACCESS BY THE DATA SUBJECT (RIGHT TO BE INFORMED)

Data Subjects have a right to receive information from the Controller whether their personal data is being processed. If data is being processed, the Data Subject may request information from the Controller about the following:

- a) purposes of the data processing;
- b) the categories of personal data concerned;
- c) the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data has been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- d) where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- e) the existence of the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- g) where the personal data is not collected from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- h) information about the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

The Controller shall provide a copy of the personal data undergoing processing free of charge once per year to the Data Subject. For any further copies requested by the Data Subject, the Controller may request reimbursement of costs (in the case of paper-based information: HUF 10/sheet). If the data subject has submitted the request electronically, the controller shall provide this data – unless otherwise instructed by the Data Subject – in electronic form to the Data Subject.

7.2. RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

7.3. RIGHT TO ERASURE, RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN

The Data Subject may request the Controller to erase his or her personal data in the following cases:

- a) the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) if the processing is based on the Data Subject's consent, the Data Subject withdraws this consent, provided that the data processing has no other legal basis;
- c) the data subject objects to the data processing, if the rules of erasure exist in respect of this objection;
- d) the personal data has been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;
- f) the personal data has been collected in relation to the offer of information society services referred to in Article 8(1) of the Decree.

The Controller is not obliged to erase the personal data if the data processing is required:

- a) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;

- b) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;
- c) on the basis of public interest concerning public health;
- d) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes insofar as the right referred to in paragraph (1) is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing; or
- e) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

7.4. RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- (1) the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- (2) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- (3) the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- (4) the data subject has objected to processing; in this case, the restriction applies pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

7.5. RIGHT TO DATA PORTABILITY

The data subject shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to the Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and shall have the right to transmit the data to another controller without hindrance from the Controller, provided that

- (1) the legal basis of processing is the performance of a contract signed with the Data Subject or the data subject's consent, and
- (2) the processing is carried out by automated means.

7.6. RIGHT TO OBJECT

7.6.1. Objection in connection with the following legal bases of data processing

If the legal basis for data processing is

- (1) the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller, or
- (2) the enforcement of legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, the Data Subject has a right to object to the data processing.

In this case, the controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or which concern the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

7.6.2. Objection to data processing for direct marketing purposes

Where personal data is processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing. In this case, the controller may no longer process the personal data concerning the Data Subject

7.7. RIGHT TO WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT

Where processing is based on consent of the Data Subject, the Data Subject shall have the right to withdraw his or her consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of any processing that was conducted based on the consent prior to its withdrawal.

The withdrawal must be sent to the Controller's e-mail address indicated in Section 1.

7.8. SUBMITTING A COMPLAINT

Request for information, rectification, restriction of processing, erasure related to the personal data, or objection to processing may be filed any time using the following contact information:

- in writing: 2351 Alsónémedi, GLS Európa utca 2.
- by e-mail: to the e-mail address adatvedelem@glshungary.com
- in person: at GLS Hungary, Alsónémedi, GLS Európa utca 2.

Filing a complaint

If the Data Subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to him or her infringes this Privacy Notice or the regulation of GDPR, the Data Subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint.

This complaint should be lodged with the Controller or the Supervisory Authority.

Complaints shall be filed to the following addresses of the Controller:

- in writing: 2351 Alsónémedi, GLS Európa utca 2.
- by e-mail: to the e-mail address adatvedelem@glshungary.com
- in person: at GLS Hungary, Alsónémedi, GLS Európa utca 2.

The Controller starts the investigation of the complaint when the complaint is filled to the abovementioned addresses.

Complaints shall be filled to the following addresses of the Supervisory Authority:

Judicial remedy

The data subject may take action in court against the data controller if his or her rights are violated. The court – following the inquiry – shall consider the case as a matter of urgency. The case falls within the jurisdiction of regional courts (contact information of the Metropolitan Court of Budapest: H-1055 Budapest, Markó u. 27., 1363 Pf.: 16.). The legal action – at the data subject's choice – can be brought before the regional court with competence according to the data subject's domicile or place of residence. You can contact the regional court with competence according to your domicile or place of residence on the website <http://birosag.hu/ugyfelkapcsolati-portal/birosag-kereso>

8. AMENDMENT OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

The Data Controller has the right to unilaterally modify the contents of this Privacy Policy and its annexes. If the amendment concerns a Section which is also part of the GLS General Business Conditions, the Data Controller shall, 15 days prior to the date of entry into force of the amendments, publish the amendment at <https://gls-group.eu/HU/hu/adatkezelesi-tajekoztato/> and send it to NMHH.

If the amendment concerns a Section which is not part of the GLS General Business Conditions, the Data Controller shall, 15 days prior to the date of entry into force of the amendments, publish the amendment at <https://gls-group.eu/HU/hu/adatkezelesi-tajekoztato/>.
